

CHECKLIST

FULL ADMINISTRATION WITHOUT WILL

Initial Filing Fee:

Court Costs: $200.00

Requirements:

Filed in the Probate Court in the County where the decedent was domiciled at time of death. Domicile is the determining factor for jurisdiction, not residency. If the decedent is a non-resident with property in Ohio, then the estate may be commenced in a county in which property of the decedent is located.

There are no statutory limits on the value of probate assets that can be transferred through a full administration.

If there are other individual's resident of Ohio with the same, or a priority, right to administer the estate as the applicant, a Waiver of Right to Administer must be filed from each of them, or the appointment will be deferred for scheduled hearing and notice to them.

A non-resident of Ohio cannot be appointed as the administrator of an Ohio estate.
