If you have already made arrangements with an individual who has a religious affiliation to perform your marriage ceremony, please make sure they are LICENSED with the State of Ohio through the Secretary of State's Office (1-877-767-6446 or <https://www.sos.state.oh.us/> click on Records, then click on Search Ministers under Minister License subtitle). Being ordained by a particular denomination is not enough; the officiant must comply with the requirements of the Ohio Secretary of State and must be Licensed with the Ohio Secretary of State prior to performing the marriage ceremony.

If you do not have a person to perform the ceremony; you may call one of the above individuals to make arrangements for your marriage ceremony. A fee may be charged to conduct the nuptials. The Delaware County Probate Court is NOT involved with making any arrangements and this information is provided only as a courtesy.
